1. Memorandum of ARA-INR-CIA meeting of 19 January 1970 on proposals for covert action in Chile to forestall Allende election.

2. INR/DDC note to Assistant Secretary Meyer, 21 August 1970, explaining steps taken to delay or prevent instructions to Embassy Santiago to take up with Chilean contacts question of influencing Chilean Congress to defeat Allende. [ ] in the note was Deputy Chief, Western Hemisphere, DDO/CIA.

3. INR/ARA memorandum describing CIA formulation of a proposal to 40 Committee for covert action against Allende, together with 3a draft of CIA's proposal. INR/ARA concur in further propaganda, disagree with proposal to work on Chilean Congress. 31 August 1970.

direct from CIA

4. State/CIA message sent to Ambassador Korry [ ] requesting in essence on assessment of feasibility of influencing the Chilean Congress to defeat Allende. Korry response, over same channel. 5 September 1970.

5. Department exchange of "NODIS" telegrams with Korry. Korry states he is more optimistic than he has protrayed himself to be in telegrams sent in less sensitive categories. (Reason for Korry's optimism -- although this is not made entirely clear in this exchange -- was possibility of a manuever whereby the conservative Allessandri would be elected by Congress, would immediately resign, and be succeeded by Frei, who thus would have overcome the constitutional bar to successive presidential terms) Korry assures Department
